Friday, March 30, 2018 • 9:00am to 1:00pm
Federal Court Jury Assembly Room

Morning Light Bites Panel: Trends in Qualified Immunity Post-Pearson

PANELISTS: Chief Utah Federal District Judge David Nuffer; Assistant Attorney General Meb Anderson, who wrote the winning brief to the trial court in Pearson v. Callahan; BYU Law Professor Aaron Nielson, who has researched and published on post-Pearson trends; Attorney Karra Porter, who has litigated civil rights cases extensively on behalf of plaintiffs.

A First Course on the First Amendment: What Is "Speech?"

PANELISTS: Professor RonNell Jones, who teaches First Amendment and the Media at University of Utah Law School; Assistant Attorney General Kyle Kaiser, counsel on the recent "AG Gag" case; ACLU of Utah Legal Director John Mejia; FBA National Civil Rights Chair Wylie Stecklow. The panel will look at key Courts of Appeals and Supreme Court cases that define the boundaries of "speech" for purposes of the First Amendment.

Entrée

KEYNOTE: Colorado Solicitor General Fred Yarger will present on his recent argument to the U.S. Supreme Court in Masterpiece Cake. General Yarger will show clips from oral argument and share his insights on the novel First Amendment issues Masterpiece Cake presents and how the Court may rule.

CLE Credits: 3.5 hours. Lunch included. The cost is $35 for FBA, ACLU, AAG, Public Defenders and Public Interest lawyers. All others: $50.
